ONE WAY YOUR CONTRIBUTION IS WORKING IN OUR COMMUNITY

Problem: Challenging Financial Future for High School Drop Outs

The average income for a high-school drop out is $18,900 – approximately $14,100 less than someone with a two-year college degree.

Results: Ways Your Contribution to United Way Is Helping

The Alternative Education Collaborative, led by United Way Silicon Valley, is expanding the educational options for young people who are either at risk of leaving school or have already left without graduating as well as resources for teachers to enhance the classroom experience.

GREATER IMPACT

Can my small monthly contribution really help?

Yes! Your contribution* is combined with those of employees from hundreds of local companies that trust United Way to invest their gifts in programs that have the greatest impact on the people living in your own backyard.

RESULTS MATTER

Will I know my gift is being used effectively?

Yes! Visit our website (www.uwsv.org) or register for email updates highlighting the impact your gift is making locally.

MY CONTRIBUTION TO MY COMMUNITY

COMMUNITY ACTION FUND: The best way to give!

Please direct my contribution to the Community Action Fund, so that United Way can support programs and services that assist my friends, family and neighbors today, while helping reduce challenges they could face tomorrow.

Optional: You may further target your gift toward programs and services supporting those listed below.

 %

Kids: Your contribution will go toward programs such as kindergarten readiness, after-school programs and drop-out prevention because investing in kids early in life pays off later through better school grades and higher graduation rates.

 %

Families: Families and individuals ought to have access to housing, food and opportunities to achieve financial stability. Your contribution will go toward programs such as Women Leading Change, an initiative dedicated to empowering single mothers to achieve financial independence.

 %

Community: 2-1-1 Santa Clara County gives everyone easy access to hundreds of community services such as daycare, safety-net services and disaster response. Your contribution will be invested in 2-1-1 as well as other programs that strengthen neighborhoods and promote civic involvement.

 %

Other Non-Profit Agency: Please DO NOT complete this section unless you choose to designate a percentage of your donation to the charity you identify below. You understand that United Way Silicon Valley does NOT control how the organization 501(c)3 shown below will use your donation. ($25 minimum)
